

Reception Desks by Coulson Joinery

Coulson Joinery has in its time designed, manufactured and installed numerous Reception Desk/Retail Counters for a variety of client including Commercial Offices, University Departments, Educational Establishments, Retail Outlets and Museums to name but a few.

Regardless of whether it is of modern or contemporary design, our highly skilled management team will work closely with our clients in order to deliver their exact requirements.

The reception desk is usually the first thing clients see when entering any establishment more over it can be seen as the hub of a business with an array of sophisticated IT Equipment and Control Panels.

Coulson Joinery fully understands the concept of first impressions and as such cares about your image that is why our workmanship is always of the highest standard.
